Councils meet cost of theatre's roof repairs

By FRANCESCA EVANS
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

ESSENTIAL roof repairs to the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis are expected to be carried out over the next month after the town council gave its final approval to a grant of £20,000 for the project, with a further £5,000 coming from West Dorset District Council.

The town council first considered donating towards the much-needed repairs after the Marine Theatre was awarded £39,000 from the government's Coastal Revival Fund in December last year.

The grant was awarded on the grounds that the work should be completed by the end of March 2016. Having already spent around £12,000 on the front section of the roof a few years ago, the theatre raised a further £7,500 towards repairs to the main roof section, the total cost of which is £71,500, so after being awarded the government grant it was still £25,000 short.

The theatre's new artistic director, Clemmie Reynolds, and David Edwards, chairman of Lyme Arts Community Trust (LACT), which runs the theatre, asked the council at the end of last year if it would consider making up the shortfall to ensure they met the March deadline, and members agreed in principle to a £20,000 grant.

The decision was finalised at an extraordinary meeting of the town council last week, from which the press and public were excluded, after councillors considered potential financial risks set out by town clerk John Wright.

He said it had been made clear to LACT that if there was any money left once the project was completed, it must come back to the town council.

Mr Wright reported that the theatre had chosen a preferred contractor who anticipated that the job would take 28 days to complete, which would be well in advance of the March 31st deadline, but he stressed that failure to spend the funding by this date was a risk to the council.

He said that the most recent survey of the roof structure was around five years ago, and there was no material concern arising from that visual inspection.

The clerk added that, as there were adequate allowances and contingencies built into the client and contractor's budget, this mitigated against the risk of an overspend.

He believed the grant of up to £20,000 from the town council would be sufficient at this point, but pointed out the potential for an overspend existed and if this happened, LACT would inevitably look to the town council to commit further funding as there were no obvious other funding sources.

However, the clerk added that the contract had been tendered for against a specification and the process was being managed by a qualified surveyor, which mitigated against the risks of time and cost overruns.

The Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell, said that the council had to seize the opportunity to support the BERNARDO has become a well-known name in and around Dorchester, regularly entertaining with his guitar at a town centre restaurant.

He has been in Dorchester for several years, and has previously lived in Canada where he and his late wife, a playwright, often worked together on artistic projects.

● YOU are known as Bernardo – what is your real name?

Bernard Alan Aaron. I was born in Newcastle-on-Tyne but my grandparents were Russian and I've lived for more than 16 years in Canada. I studied guitar at Newcastle, London, and then Toronto at the Royal Conservatory of Music. I emigrated there in 1967.

● HOW long have you been living in Dorset?

I've been in Dorchester for over three years now, moving in July 2012. We went initially to Bournemouth in 2010. We came to area because my wife's daughter lived at Charlton Down.

My wife was a playwright and poet and we worked together on several projects, including many for children's television in Canada and the stage.

While we were in Canada I was also teaching guitar, sometimes up to eight classes in a week, and often at the weekend as well.

● HAVE any of your works been published?

Yes, several. I have had pieces published in Classical Guitar and Guitar International, a Unicef Lullaby. Amongst them was a seven-page work "Sueno Espanol" in Guitar International back in 1989. There have been many other pieces.

Not all of them were published, including a 19-page piece, based on the surrender of Granada, Spain in 1492, after 780 years of Moorish Rule – the first movement, featured in the ballet 'Mightier than the Sword'.

● CAN you play in different styles?

Yes, almost any, including English pieces. I've published variations on Greensleeves and pieces based on traditional Welsh and Scottish music as well as seven variations on the Coventry Carol.

● DO you have a favourite?

I quite like pieces where the guitar is played in the style of a Balalaika, probably because my background is from that part of the world.

● AND do you practise?

Probably not as much as I should, but I will get the guitar out most days for a while. If I'm working on something I can play for hours, often forgetting what time of day or night it is. You can get quite lost in music.

● DO you plan to continue playing?

Yes, I enjoy it and people seem to enjoy me playing. I'm often at the ReLoved restaurant in South Street and also play at other venues, when asked. I can tailor the performance to whatever style people would like.

● AND composing?

I have just completed a ballet for guitar and orchestra, 'Mightier than the Sword' working with orchestrator Ian Phillips-Kerr. We started working together about a year ago and the piece runs to about 80 minutes. I started with the guitar and wrote pieces for other instruments around it. It's dedicated to my wife and the theme is the triumph of true, inspired art... but I don't expect it to be performed for a long time because it's so complicated to get these things funded and organised.

Councillor walks out as grants discussed in private

A LYME Regis councilor walked out of the Guildhall last week because he objected to a town council meeting being held in secret.

Councillor Derek Hallett attended an extraordinary meeting of the full council to discuss the Marine Theatre. The meeting was held behind closed doors, with the press and public being excluded, as finance matters relating to the theatre were being discussed.

After the meeting Councillor Hallett got up to leave when he was told the council intended to continue to look at the applications - but not make any decisions -

philip@pemedial.co.uk

for the awards of major grants to local organisations in preparation for a public meeting tonight (Wednesday). The private meeting to discuss the grants was originally scheduled for the following evening and Councillor Hallett said he had not yet been provided with the documents on the grants applications, and therefore he considered the meeting to be illegal.

He left the meeting but was later told that if he insisted on the pre-grants meeting going ahead as originally scheduled, council officers were happy to meet with him but it was unlikely any other councillors would be present. Councillor Hallett declined, saying there would be no point having a meeting with just him present.

At a previous meeting, Councillor Hallett expressed the view that the council were holding too many meetings in secret, saying: "This is Lyme Regis, not North Korea."

Councillor Hallett told the View From Lyme Regis: "My views on so many meetings behind closed doors are well known. We seem to go into committee at the drop of the hat and I think we have too many working parties."

"I do not have a personal computer and therefore I cannot receive emails. I have requested all council documents in hard copy format, as did the mayor (Councillor Owen Lovell) before he became mayor. I did not get these documents.

"It would have been a nonsense to have just me at a meeting with two officers."

The relevant grant documents were delivered to Councillor Hallett the following day.

Councillor Hallett was not the first councillor to walk out of a meeting in recent weeks because it was being held behind closed doors. Councillor Stan Williams, chairman of the Town Management Committee, did likewise recently when the council held a private briefing to discuss the budget and possible grants.

The council will be awarding major grants at an open meeting tonight (Wednesday) for the next four years with a budget of £382,800 to distribute.

Another fatality on deadly A35

ONE person died and two others are fighting for their lives in hospital after a head-on crash on the A35 just outside Lyme Regis.

The accident happened close to the Red Lane and Green Lane turnings, east of Hunters Lodge, on Saturday evening.

Two vehicles were involved in the collision at about 6pm.

A police spokesperson said: "A 46-year-old woman from the Isle of Wight received fatal injuries. Two other occupants of the same vehicle remain in a critical condition in Derriford Hospital.

"Next of kin have been informed and enquiries are ongoing.

"A Honda car from the Dorset area and a Vauxhall Zafira from the Isle of Wight were involved in the collision."

A spokesperson for South Western Ambulance Service said: "We were called to reports of a head-on crash involving six people, four in one car and two in the other." Axminster town councillor Joy Raymond lives just off the A35, close to the site of last Saturday's accident.

She said: "I was alerted to the accident by a helicopter hovering above. It is absolutely horrific. Highways England [formerly Highways Agency] really must address this terrible stretch of road.

"There is clearly a problem, be it speed, signage or whatever.

"I don't know the reason for this accident, but there is never any harm in slowing traffic down the minute it hits the Devon border."

She expressed a hope that Highways England could look at the stretch of last Saturday's accident when carrying out improvements to the nearby Hunters Lodge junction. The stretch of road from the Charmouth roundabout to the Axminster turning is notorious for serious accidents.

A female passenger of a car died in an accident in Greenway Head, near Raymonds Hill, in March last year. Three months later, in June, a man died in an accident involving a car and a lorry that collided near the Red Lane and Green Lane turnings.

The nearby Hunters Lodge junction has been an accident blackspot for several years.

Calls for safety measures were renewed after a string of fatal accidents. Two females died - one at the scene and one in hospital - after an accident in May 2013.

This was followed by another fatal accident, involving two vehicles, in which one person died in July of that year.

The accidents in 2013 led to meetings and summits involving town and parish councillors from Axminster and Uplyme, MP Neil Parish and the Highways Agency.

Councillor Raymond was part of the campaign which eventually led to Highways England announcing a package of measures at Hunters Lodge.

This will include a signal-controlled pedestrian crossing near Raymonds Hill Post Office, vehicle-activated signs that will flash warnings of traffic waiting to enter the A35 from side roads, longer turning lane markings on the side roads, the extension of the 40MPH limit further west towards the Axminster turning, and A35 road markings to give the impression that the carriageway is narrower to slow through-traffic.

The work, costing an estimated £250,000, is expected to start in spring 2016.

Campaigners wanted traffic lights at the junction, but this was ruled out by Highways England.

● ANY witnesses to last Saturday's collision are asked to contact Devon and Cornwall Police on 101, quoting log reference 569 30/01/2016.

Lifelong supporter of RNLI takes on team leader role at charity's shop

■ NEW LEADER: Former NHS senior sister Krys Lavery, who moved to the town less than two years ago, is the new team leader at the RNLI charity shop on the Cobb

A FORMER senior sister with the NHS has taken on the role of team leader, running the record-breaking lifeboat charity shop in Lyme Regis.

Krys Lavery, who moved to Lyme with her surgeon husband Ken less than two years ago, will lead a group of some 35 volunteers who staff the RNLI shop next to the lifeboat station on the Cobb.

The tiny shop has regularly featured as one of the best performing of hundreds of RNLI outlets and last year was in the top ten.

Bournemouth-born Krys, 55, a lifelong supporter of the RNLI, said: "I started doing one shift selling in the shop, then two, and after thinking long and hard I decided to become the volunteer leader.

"We have a tremendous group of enthusiastic helpers and it is simply great fun and very exciting. It is so completely different to nursing, and we all hope we can break a few more records to help the RNLI's aim to save lives at sea."

The RNLI's visitor experience manager Amanda Woods said: "I am delighted Krys has taken on the role of team leader. She has a very positive outlook and I am sure the shop will continue to be one of our top performers under her team leadership."

Anyone who would like to help in the shop should contact Krys on 07538 607 753 or kk17@btopenworld.com

Landslip spills over new seawall

A SECTION of the new seawall along East Cliff in Lyme Regis was closed this week after landslips spilled over it.

The slips saw mud pile up on the wall, built as part of the £19million stabilisation works completed last year, but West Dorset District Council said the movement was "well within the expected range".

Council engineers inspected the site on Monday morning after questions were raised over whether the wall should be closed to the public.

Councillor John Russell, West Dorset District Council portfolio holder for Environmental Protection and Assets, said: "The council is in the process of clearing up the debris that has spilled onto the new walkway at East Cliff."

"Our engineers have visited the site and have established that there has been some minor tension cracks. These are well within the expected range, so there is no need to close the sea wall to the public."

"Our advice is to be cautious whenever walking by any cliffs that have been affected by the weather and to take heed of any warning signs that are in place."

However, coastguards were called to the scene on Tuesday afternoon and cordoned off a section of the wall after more land fell down.

Village shop dishes out double donation for local young people

■ DOUBLE DONATION: Maria and Alex Tritton from Charmouth Stores donate £300 to Vicky Whatmore and Andrea Whitbread from Charmouth Cherubs. Below, a cheque is handed to headteacher Gillian Morris and children from Charmouth Primary

francesca@pemedi.co.uk

CHARMOUTH Stores made a double donation to the village's young people this week, thanks to a shopping scheme that allows customers to give back to local good causes.

The Nisa Local store on The Street, Charmouth, takes part in the Making a Difference Locally scheme, which sees a share of money spent to specific items in store put into a charity put for local groups and organisations. Previous groups to benefit from the scheme have included Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre, St Andrew's Community Hall, 1st Charmouth Scouts, Friends of Charmouth Library, Charmouth Local History Society, Shoreline Magazine, NCI Charmouth Lookout and more.

The latest recipients were toddler group Charmouth Cherubs, which this week received £300 for new fancy dress costumes and other items, and Charmouth Primary School which received £700 for equipment for the reception class.

This brings total donations raised from Charmouth Store's Making a Difference Locally scheme since 2010 to £4,350.

On receiving the donation, Charmouth Primary School headteacher Gillian Morris said: "A very big thank you to Maria and Alex at Charmouth Stores. We are extremely grateful for their very generous donation which will go towards our early years learning."

Charmouth Cherubs also expressed their thanks. The toddler group meets every Wednesday from 9.30am to 11.30am in the village hall for children up to school age. The next session is on February 24th after half term and the first session is free.

Any local organisations who would be interested in benefiting from the Making a Difference Locally scheme should contact Maria or Alex Tritton at Charmouth Stores.

Theatre roof repairs get go ahead after council grants

Councillor Stephen Miller added that the council had a vested interest in making sure the building was sound.

Town, district and county councillor Daryl Turner later announced that West Dorset District Council has also agreed to donate £5,000 to the repairs.

Speaking at a previous meeting, Councillor Turner said that supporting the theatre with this grant was a "huge opportunity to get the elephant out of the room which has been around for ages".

Speaking after the council's decision to approve the grant, Miss Reynolds from the theatre said: "It is fantastic news that the town and district councils are supporting our forthcoming roof works at the Marine Theatre."

"Following receipt of a £39,000 government fund from the Coastal Revival Fund and £10,000 from our own fundraising, we were still £25,000 short. Lyme Regis Town Council has generously agreed to support the works for up to £20,000 and West Dorset District Council will provide £5,000.

"As the government funding has to be spent by the end of March, this generosity by our local councils has enabled this essential work to go ahead. We are all very grateful and very much looking forward to a dry theatre, with works are due to begin in the next two to three weeks.

■ LYME Regis Town Council is expected to consider a second grant application from the Marine Theatre tonight (Wednesday), requesting £140,000 over the next four years for core running costs and improving accessibility, as part of the council's major grants allocation.

The council has previously offered the theatre £32,000 a year but this year the Marine was asked to submit a grant application along with other local organisations in an effort to make the process fairer.

Twelve organisations have requested a total of £591,035 over four years, with a total budget of £382,800 available.

More than 100 join anti-fracking protest

FRIENDLY PROTEST: Campaigners displayed anti-fracking posters and banners. Below, Marcus Dixon, a local expert in solar energy, was one of the guest speakers

MORE than 100 locals and lovers of Lyme Regis alike took part in a friendly protest against fracking on Sunday morning.

The group met at the Marine Parade shelters before carrying their anti-fracking placards and banners to the Pilot Boat Inn, where they found out more about the process of hydraulic fracturing for oil and gas from a number of guest speakers.

This "No Fracking Way" event was part of a national initiative to raise awareness about fracking and renewable energy with 35 others taking place around the UK. There was even a solidarity event that had taken place in Australia the night before to support the cause.

The event was organised by Lyme Regis residents Tracey and Simon West, who founded the Frack Free Lyme Regis group around the time the government went back on its pre-election promise never to frack in Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Sites of Specialist Scientific Interest and under National Parks.

Tracey said: "Currently, the nearest area that has been granted a PEDL (petroleum exploration development licence) is on the edge of Dorchester. The drilling required to search for fossil fuels is invasive enough, but if they get the go ahead to frack, we will certainly know about it here in Lyme."

"The lorry movements alone required to deliver water to frack a single well are in excess of 1,000 and there are typically up to eight wells per square mile."

Simon added: "An ex-insurance broker suggested that any form of oil or gas extraction under houses in Dorchester would have insurers refusing to quote for properties. This is backed up by Alan Hudson from neighbouring Wells, who was quoted in the Wells Journal as having been refused home insurance by two different companies because he was in a potential fracking area."

"A local resident said they believed fracking would never come to Lyme Regis, which is possibly true, but if the next block along the North Devon coast gets licensed then it would happen in the places that our drinking water is sourced from. Leaks from the chemicals used in the process, could get into the water course, as they have done in the US, Australia and Canada."

"Few have faith in the government promise that the UK will use better methods than the other countries; in the case of Pennsylvania in the US, 46 per cent of wells from one company had environmental or health impacting violations reported to the Environmental Protection Agency."

If you would like to find out more about fracking and the other impacts it could have on Lyme Regis, Dorset and neighbouring counties, join the Facebook group Frack Free Lyme Regis or email NoFrack@magiccoxygen.co.uk to join the mailing list and be kept abreast of monthly meetings where all are welcome.

Great support for first beach clean

MORE than 70 volunteers of all ages joined in the first community beach clean held at Charmouth on Saturday.

Beach clean organisers said they received a "monumental amount of local support" from Charmouth Primary, the local Scouts, Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre volunteers and many members of the public who all donned gloves and litter pickers to help tidy up East Charmouth beach.

The group filled nearly 100 bags of rubbish collected from the beach, which included discarded fishing nets, a variety of disposable plastic items and even the bottom of a kayak.

The event was organised by the Litter Free Coast and Sea campaign and Charmouth Heritage Coast Centre in response to the amount of beach litter brought onto the shore by the recent winter storms.

Tom Oliver, Litter Free Coast and Sea project assistant, said: "After the overwhelming response from volunteers, we will be setting up a Litter Free Coast and Sea Beach Group so that everyone can get involved on a regular basis with helping to keep the beach clean and get support they need to run campaigns in their local area to reduce litter or improve bathing water quality safe for swimming."

Alison Ferris, Charmouth Heritage Centre warden, added: "It is great that everyone has that community spirit here and wanted to get involved. Thanks go to our volunteers and junior rangers and also to Charmouth Primary for circulating the event and getting families involved."

"The kids were great as they knew the effects the rubbish has on our beaches but also had fun creating monsters using the little pickers and the gloves! We could not have asked more from everyone, they were simply great."

A Litter Free Coast and Sea week is being planned from April 23rd until May 1st. It will be co-ordinated by the Litter Free Coast and Sea campaign and the Dorset Coast Forum and will include events and campaigns to raise awareness about beach and marine litter as well as bathing water quality issues. The annual Great Dorset Beach Clean will be included as part of the events.

If you have an event or an idea for an event that could be run during the Litter Free Coast and Sea week or would like to join the Charmouth Litter Free Coast and Sea Beach Group, get in touch by emailing litterfreecoastsea@dorsetcc.gov.uk or call 01305 224731.

Public invited to comment on Coastal Community plan

REGENERATION and development of seaside towns, ports, harbours and coastal areas such as Dorset is one priority for the Department of Communities and Local Government (DCLG), which has allocated funding for the establishment of Coastal Community Teams around the English coast.

These teams are writing Coastal Community Economic Plans and in Dorset there are a total of nine plans currently being written; eight cover specific coastal areas, including Lyme Regis and Charmouth, and one is a connecting document for the whole of the Dorset coast which gives an overview of all the areas.

The plans are being written by the five Coastal Community Teams in Dorset. As well as Lyme Regis and Charmouth, these teams cover Christchurch, Bournemouth, Poole, Purbeck, Owermoigne, Chesil Bank, Burton Bradstock, Chideock, Symondsburry, Weymouth, Portland, Bridport and West Bay.

The teams bring together local businesses, councils, organisations and communities along the coast and will include their potential projects within the economic plans.

The plans will be submitted to the Department of Communities and Local Government (DCLG) at the end of January to help them shape the next wave of the Coastal Communities Fund, look at how coastal community areas can be regenerated and identify the needs of these communities. These plans will also be used by the Coastal Community Teams to help co-ordinate regeneration projects in their areas and set down economic plans that focus on coastal communities.

The teams have followed the guidance set out by the DCLG to write the plans and these plans aim to highlight the needs of the community, the strengths, weaknesses, threats and opportunities within the coastal community areas and potential projects which will help them to thrive.

The plans were submitted to the DCLG last week and will be available for public comment until February 26th and can be viewed online at <http://bit.ly/1OKPTG7>.

If you have any comments on the plans, send them via email to dorset.coast@dorsetcc.gov.uk or to suggest a project you would like to be included in the plans use the template available on the website and send it in.

In July 2015 the Department of Communities and Local Government (DCLG) invited the creation of Coastal Community Teams and offered £10,000 to kick-start the teams. The main objective was to write an economic plan for their area by 31/01/2016.

In December last year, the Lyme Regis and Charmouth Coastal Communities Team secured almost £60,000 government funding for local facilities, including the Marine Theatre, The Hub, Town Mill and Charmouth Coastwatch.

Fossil Festival to encourage careers in science

LYME Regis Fossil Festival aim to encourage more young people to pursue careers in science when it is held from Friday, April 29th to Sunday, May 1st this year.

Promoted by Lyme Regis Development Trust, this year's festival will take on a new format with events, displays and activities held along the seafront and in other venues around the town rather than in one marquee on the beach as in previous years.

The festival programme will include a variety of activities, including talks and walks, to inform and entertain those interested in fossils and Lyme Regis' rich natural history.

The theme for this year's festival is encouraging young people to get involved in science, particularly the earth sciences. It aims to generate enthusiasm for STEM subjects (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) and to introduce young people to career and course opportunities available to them.

The Fossil Festival provides interesting and innovative ways for people of all ages to engage with science, but it is particularly beneficial for children and young people who might be inspired to choose a career in STEM subjects.

An impressive range of partners will be attending this year's event, including the Natural History Museum, Jurassic Coast Trust and British Antarctic Survey. Teams will also be attending from the Jurassic World Heritage Site, Geological Society and Natural England.

In addition, there will be a fossil fair where you will be able to buy souvenirs from local fossil collectors, and groups from universities and complementing organisations.

Anyone interested in pursuing a career in these fields will be able to find plenty of information and inspiration.

The Fossil Festival provides activities for families and adults, as well as children and students. These include the popular fossil walks, which showcase Lyme Regis' natural and cultural history. There will also be a variety of fossil talks, guaranteed to appeal to budding fossil hunters and enthusiasts of all ages, and other events.

Full details of this year's festival will be published in the 2016 programme, which will be available on the website www.fossilfestival.co.uk nearer the time.

New electoral boundaries for county will come into affect at 2017 election

NEW electoral boundaries for Dorset County Council have been approved by Parliament after an independent review.

The Local Government Boundary Commission for England published its final recommendations for changes to the county's electoral divisions last September following an eight-week public consultation.

The new boundaries have now been made law by an order of Parliament and will come into effect at the next county council elections in May 2017.

The changes mean Dorset voters will elect 46 county councillors - one more than at present.

Dorset will be divided into 40 county council areas called divisions, a reduction from the current 42. Six of these divisions - Bridport, Dorchester, Ferndown, Gillingham, Verwood and West Moors - will each be represented by two councillors.

The new boundaries will not affect the Marshwood Vale ward, which includes Lyme Regis. This area is already represented by only one councillor - currently Councillor Daryl Turner, who also sits on the town and district councils.

Two-councillor divisions have around twice the average number of voters and mean people can be represented fairly, without splitting communities in two. The other 34 divisions will each be represented by an individual county councillor.

Councillor Robert Gould, Dorset County Council leader, said: "We are grateful to everyone who took the time to give their views during the boundary review. By taking part they have helped to make sure that local people are represented fairly and in a way that reflects the changing make-up of our communities."

As well as representing local people from their own divisions, county councillors have a shared responsibility for council services provided to the 418,000 Dorset residents and a total budget of £613million.

More information about the role of county councillors and how to become one can be found online at www.dorsetforyou.com/beingacouncillor

Reviews of electoral boundaries are done periodically to make sure that the number of voters represented by each councillor is roughly the same. The last review of Dorset County Council's boundaries was in 2004.

Full details of the Dorset boundary changes, including maps, can be found by visiting the website www.lgbce.org.uk

The night Wogan came to town

IT was a night many of us will remember with deep affection - especially after the unexpected death of national treasure Sir Terry Wogan last weekend.

Sir Terry was the consummate broadcaster, loved by his listeners, many of whom were members of his bizarre TOGS organisation, and admired by millions for his Children In Need work which helped to raise £800,000 million. The affable Irishman was the Emerald Isles' greatest export and

by Philip Evans

it is unlikely we will see his likes again gracing our TV screens or coming across the air waves.

Sir Terry toyed with banking in his hometown of Limerick before becoming a reporter on his local radio station. He soon graduated to Radio One on the mainland and went onto become one of the most familiar faces in broadcasting with his own radio and television shows, such as "Blankety Blank", and his irreverent commentaries on the European Song Concert.

But his popularity was greatly enhanced by his marathon stints for Children In Need.

Not long after his radio career started to take off in this country, I booked Sir Terry to comper the Miss Lyme Regis contest. It was August 1973.

We organised a cocktail party at the Hotel Alexandra before the main event at the Woodroffe School, attended by 200 people.

Shortly before he was due to make his appearance, Sir Terry phoned down to reception and said he had forgotten to pack his bow tie and could we get him a blue velvet one. At 8pm... in Lyme Regis... on a Friday evening!

It just so happened that Nigel Fortnam, who was the PRO for Bass South West, one of our sponsors, was wearing such a tie. Velvet was the height of fashion in those days.

Sir Terry was soon meeting all our guests in his usual charming fashion, including Lyme Regis News editor David Cozens, who attempted to interview him but admitted afterwards that Sir Terry interviewed himself and that he could not get a word in.

The Irishman was hugely popular at the Miss Lyme Regis Ball, putting all the contestants at their ease and helping to make it one of the most successful events organised by the Regatta and Carnival Committee.

We had a drink afterwards in the bar of the Alexandra and he returned to London early the next morning. He must have enjoyed it as we got a mention in his autobiography.

He also gave me a piece of advice. He told me to forget about being a journalist and to concentrate on becoming a full-time comper!

Council will be digging deep

■ CASH-rich Lyme Regis Town Council meet tonight (Wednesday) to award major grants to local organisations.

The council - possibly the most generous in the South West - has budgeted a total of £382,800 to give away for major schemes in the town over the next four years.

Twelve local organisations have applied for a total of £591,000 over that four-year period - so not all of them will be lucky to get their full amount. The council also gives away a further £31,300 every year in medium and minor grants.

Don't ask where all this money comes from - but the town's organisations should be thankful.

The largest amount being sought this evening is £140,000 over four years for the Marine Theatre to support core running costs and improving accessibility.

The council has consistently supported the Marine, contributing around £500,000 since it was taken over as a trust.

The next largest grant - £120,000 over four years - is being sought by Lyme Regis Football Club which is launching a project to extend its minimum size pitch, construction of a covered area for spectators and building a new kitchen to cater for functions.

The Red Arrows have been appearing in Lyme Regis for more than 40 years. By becoming a member of this Club you will be helping to maintain that relationship and to ensure that the Red Arrows continues as one of the summer's biggest attractions, bringing many thousands to the town and boosting the local economy.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Community week to welcome the Arrows

IF the Red Arrows are able to visit Lyme Regis during the summer months a week of community events will be organised to celebrate the occasion.

The RAF'S crack aerobatic team has been giving displays in Lyme for more than 40 years, all but one of them being held during Lifeboat Week.

But this year the Arrows will be making a charge, believed to be in the region of £13,000. Lifeboat Week organisers felt they were unable to commit their charity funds to meeting such a fee.

Recognising that Red Arrows' day was one of the busiest of the summer for Lyme Regis, attracting thousands of people to the town, the View from Lyme Regis, backed by the Lyme Regis Business Group, launched an appeal to raise the money.

Lyme Regis Town Council gave its backing to the initiative by agreeing to underwrite the cost should there be a shortfall in the fundraising.

A local company which wishes to remain anonymous gave their support by guaranteeing a significant donation for 2016 and future years to maintain the Arrows' long association with the town. A Red Arrows' 100 Club (see panel left) in which 100 members donate £100 has also been launched and other individual donations have been forthcoming.

The Arrows are unable to give their display during Lifeboat Week this year because the pilots are on annual leave. But a provisional date for the Red Arrows' return has been pencilled in and will be confirmed or otherwise in the next few weeks.

If Lyme is included in the schedule of summer displays, it has been agreed through the mayor's office that a community week of events will be put together.

Local organisations will be offered free use of the market area on the seafront for one of the days to promote and fund raise for their group.

In return, they will have to supply at least four collectors during the Red Arrows display. Fifty per cent of the money collected will go towards paying for future visits by the Arrows with the remaining 50 per cent being divided between the six local organisations.

Interested organisations should complete the form below and return to Lyme Regis Town Council.

If there are more than six organisations, their names will go into a hat and drawn out by the Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell. Those unlucky will be offered a day in subsequent years.

Wille and the Bandits are back!

THE BRILLIANT blues band Wille and the Bandits are returning to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, February 6th. They brought the house down when they played last year so are back by popular demand. If you haven't yet experienced one of their gigs, you can expect a classic blues rock three piece much in the vein of Cream or The Jimi Hendrix experience. But just as these bands pushed the genre in their time, Wille and the Bandits also take their sound beyond what is expected of them.

The use of more bizarre instrumentation and eclectic influences in the song writing often pushes them more into a world music or progressive category. Having toured with artists such as Deep Purple through to the John Butler trio and played major festivals across Europe, the band seem to leave an equally astounding impression on audiences of all ages and musical backgrounds with their energetic and soulful performances.

They have received great critical acclaim, being voted in the top ten must see bands at Glastonbury by BBC Radio 1. Bob Harris is a big fan and they are regularly played on Radio 2. They reached number 2 in the UK blues chart with their first single on downloads alone. Now touring their third independently released studio album Wille and the Bandits fan base, repertoire of sounds, styles and innovation seems to be growing at an exponential rate and no doubt will be bringing music lovers of Bridport with them!

Tickets are £12 from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Marine Theatre to host Jazz Brunch

THE MARINE Theatre is hosting a Jazz Brunch this Sunday, featuring music from Rachel More and Phillip Clouts, and a brunch from Aroma Cafe.

Singer Rachel More will be performing a wide selection of well-loved swing, ballads, blues and bossa-novas and will also be featuring some of the songs from her CD All My Tomorrows. Rachel has sung live on Radio 4's Loose Ends and been featured on ITV's Meridian Tonight and at the Jazz Divas Festival.

She will be accompanied by Philip Clouts who the Observer praised for his "particularly subtle judgment when it comes to harmonizing simple melodies".

Listen to the music whilst enjoying a delicious brunch buffet served on arrival; hot choices include smoked mackerel kedgeree, breakfast fritata and and field mushroom with goats cheese with a herb walnut pesto. All served with salad and buttered french stick; plus Aroma's delectable homemade cakes and scones.

Devil's Violin – don't open that door!

FOLLOWING a hugely successful Dorset tour with A Love Like Salt in 2013, the acclaimed performers of The Devil's Violin make a much anticipated return to the County through Artsreach with their brand new show, The Forbidden Door.

What would you sacrifice for the one you love? How far is too far?

Don't open that door! As soon as the rule is laid down, we know it will be broken. Once the door is opened, then what? Anything from love, loss, drama, danger, horror, humour, twists and trials.

The Devil's Violin has been breathing new life into the ancient art of storytelling since 2006 and for this tour, musicians Sarah Moody, Oliver-Wilson Dickson and Dylan Fowler are joined by storyteller and spoken word performer Dominic Kelly, who is a regular on the storytelling scene across Europe and curates Lancaster's popular Lit Fest.

Prepare for an evocative and enchanting evening of rich and dynamic storytelling accompanied by visceral, melodic live music that will stay with you for some time.

The Devil's Violin comes to Broadoak Village Hall on Friday, February 5th at 7.30pm. To book tickets or for more details call 01308 424922.

The show also comes to Martinstown Village Hall on Sunday, February 7th at 8pm. For more details call 01305 889202.

Ed Aczel

Anti-comedian Ed flaps his wings

AWARD-WINNING comic (and former office worker) Ed Aczel – hailed as "Britain's greatest living anti-comedian" (The Guardian) is more or less delighted to announce his return to the road for what will be his second nationwide stand-up tour.

His new show, The Random Flapping of a Butterfly's Wings, sees Ed tackle the pithy task of nailing down the nature of existence.

Ed is best known in comedy circles for really not following the rules of stand-up comedy, and it is in his own inimitable style that he will be aiming to use his show to change the world once and for all – although it may turn out to be too complicated.

Ed will be seeking to find out the answer to the age old question, can you have your cake and eat it? Which in Ed's world would obviously mean – can you seek to change human consciousness forever while keeping your weekends free. Warning: Chaos Theory will be used liberally.

Then, bringing Maths, History and Improv to life for beginners, Ed will explore his own inner psyche with a section analysing his dreams – and then he'll try not to get too paranoid.

The Random Flapping of a Butterfly's Wings will also see Ed include a couple of amusingly circular stories about his life, which thankfully don't last long.

Aczel can be seen in Ricky Gervais's upcoming new film 'Life on the Road'.

Mr Jéan make Friday funky

Mr Jéan

ONE OF the largest and most lively crowds the Marine Theatre has seen in recent years descended last Friday (January 29th) to dance the night away with popular party band Mr Jéan.

The 'Thank Funk It's Friday' show featured the tight rhythms and funky grooves the group have become synonymous with locally, with a hugely varied set incorporating Shalamar's 'I Can Make You Feel Good', Michael Jackson's 'PYT', and Odyssey's 'Back to My Roots', through to more unusual and surprising picks including R Kelly's 'Ignition (Remix)' and Justin Timberlake's 'Like I Love You', all stamped with the band's inimitable upbeat vibes.

The Theatre's stylish bar

The theatre's increasingly popular bar, is now opening every Friday and Saturday from 5pm until 1am. Here will be music every Friday in the Bar – acoustic, bands, DJs, open mic. Once a month there will be a big party night;

This Friday, February 5th, at 8pm the Swing commanders take us back in time and on the dance floor with 1940s classics, boogie-woogie, western swing and 50s jump jazz. If you enjoy vintage style, lively music and good old fashioned entertainment, you'll have a ball!

Keep up to date with whats on at the Marine Theatre via www.marinetheatre.com or on the Facebook Page and Twitter.

It's pantomime time again – oh yes it is - and loyal fans of Bridport Pantomime Players will be delighted to know it's Dick Whittington

AMY WHEATLEY plays the eponymous hero who travels to London to seek fame and fortune believing the streets to be paved with gold! On his way he befriends Tommy the Cat, a super-duper rat catcher played by Sarah Pitcher, and once in London falls in love with the lovely Alice (Laura Dunford). Alice is the daughter of the very important Alderman Fitzwarren (Greg Horton) who gives Dick a job. All seems well, but evil is afoot in the guise of King Rat (Teresa Grinter) who with the help of two gullible sailors, Cod and Skate (Sue Farrant and Hattie Amos) makes sure Dick is disgraced.

Dame Sarah Suet (Jess Ives) ably caters for the needs of everyone whilst Idle Jack (Emily Shoemark) lives up to the word Idle! After a contrived ship wreck, everyone is washed up on the shores of Morocco where the Sultan (Sarah Light) and his Wazir (Jo Aisthorpe) believe themselves to rule the land. All ends well as all good pantomimes should, but not without the help of Fairy Bow-Bells (Alice Tuck) who takes up her wand to make the magic.

This pantomime has something for everyone and will be on stage at The Electric Palace from Wednesday, February 3rd to Saturday, February 6th at 7.30pm with a matinee on Thursday 1.30pm, and Saturday at 2pm. Tickets £9 (concession £7). FIRST NIGHT (Wednesday, February 3rd) all tickets £6 (no further reductions) on sale at the Tourist Information Centre from January 6th.

So leave behind the gloom and cold of winter, make your way to The Electric Palace and sail away on the Saucy Sue to the warmer climes of Morocco and join in the fun – nobody is too old – in fact some of you who haven't been to a pantomime for years will have the time of your lives – oh yes you will!

One man... One show... Three courses

George Egg, The Anarchist Cook, whips up a night to remember

IF YOU like cooking and comedy then you'll love this. Following multiple sell-out shows at the Edinburgh and Brighton Fringe Festivals last year, Dorchester Arts welcomes George Egg, the much-celebrated anarchist cook to the Corn Exchange on Friday, February 19th.

Internationally acclaimed comedian George Egg is a rather fanatical self-taught cook with a somewhat anarchic approach to making meals. As obsessed with culinary matters as he is with comedic ones, and finding himself dissatisfied with the quality and cost of takeaways and room-service meals while touring the stand-up comedy clubs of the world, George embarks on a project to take matters into his own surprisingly capable hands.

Whilst performing a mind-bendingly original show of comedy-come-illustrated-lecture George prepares a three-course meal on the equipment hotels unwittingly provide (iron, kettle, trouser press), and if you want to, you can even taste the delights created it at the end.

Wildly brandishing the world's second largest briefcase containing a battery of ridiculous props, George bounds onto the stage to perform one of the most original, interesting, innovative, and sweetly whimsical comedy performances you are ever likely to see. George Egg has been a professional stand-up comedian for the last two decades. He has an extremely successful solo show with which he has toured across the UK and Europe, both onstage and television, and more recently he has been the support act for Lee Mack, Mickey Flannagan and Jack Dee.

A true cross between alternative stand-up comedy and music hall variety audiences can expect a cocktail of belly laughs, striking innovation and extreme multi-tasking.

George Egg: Anarchist Cook at Dorchester Arts, The Corn Exchange Friday, February 19th, 8pm. For more details or to book call 01305 266926 or visit dorchesterarts.org.uk Theatre to sink your teeth into!

BEWARE. He is coming. Keep your windows locked and gather in the garlic.

After a hugely popular tour with his take on Dickens' 'Great Expectations', Cornish actor and co-founder of Kneehigh Theatre, Dave Mynne is returning to Dorset through Artsreach.

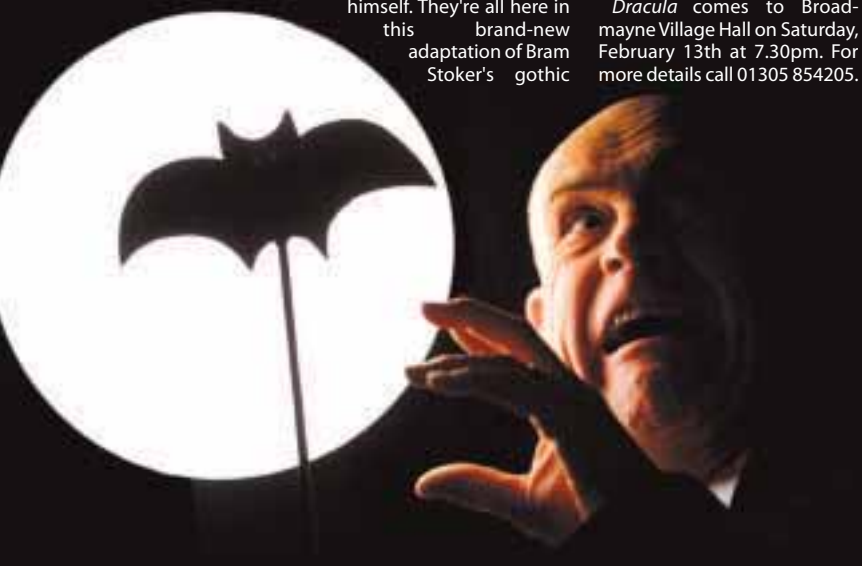

This time the immensely talented and versatile performer is sinking his teeth into Bram Stoker's classic tale of the vampire in an outstanding one-man performance of Dracula.

Blood, bats and sexy lady vampires. A madman eating flies. Garlic and gore. Coffins, crucifixes, crypts and the Count himself. They're all here in this brand-new adaptation of Bram Stoker's gothic pot-boiler...

The show first toured in Dorset last spring to great acclaim and so early booking to catch a performance this year is advised! But be warned: this monstrous, disturbing and completely batty tale of dark deeds and the Un-Dead, will thrill and seduce you!

Dracula comes to Broadmayne Village Hall on Saturday, February 13th at 7.30pm. For more details call 01305 854205.

EXCEPTIONAL DEMAND FOR RENTAL PROPERTY

SUCCESSFUL and experienced lettings agents Greenslade Taylor Hunt urgently require more properties in Dorchester and the surrounding villages where demand is outstripping supply. The red hot market means homes are being snapped up as soon as properties are taken on. Tarnia Wheeler MARLA, Lettings Manager at the Dorchester branch, said: "We're letting everything really quickly and struggling to keep the stock levels up."

Demand is extremely high. Recently one property was swamped with 11 viewings and five of those were keen to proceed with the rental.

All types of rental properties from one bedroom apartments to large family homes in all locations are wanted, but there are particular "hot spots" with properties close to Dorchester town centre being especially desirable.

Family friendly homes are also sought after with two/three bedroom terraced properties with gardens and a garage topping many tenants' wish lists.

"GTH offer a wide range of services to our landlords to suit their individual needs; but our primary goal is to find good quality suitable tenants to ensure a smooth and simple lettings process for all involved," said Tarnia.

She has a long track record in the lettings industry and has been a member of ARLA – the Association of Residential Lettings Agents – for many years. This professional body aims to ensure the highest standards in the industry. It is a reassurance to landlords and tenants alike of a quality, professional service.

Greenslade Taylor Hunt has a long-standing reputation as a successful and professional letting agent. If you are a landlord who would like advice on lettings please contact Tarnia Wheeler, Lettings Manager, at the Dorchester office, on (01305) 268786 or call in at Westgate House, 45 High Street, Dorchester.

Add 16 to a new SsangYong 2.2 this March & the sums really add up

THE new SsangYong Korando SUV crossover, Rexton 4x4 and Turismo MPV have all received a significant power boost for 2016 together with improved economy and reduced CO2 emissions, and are now available to order with the new 16 registration.

The improvements are the result of a major upgrade to the powertrain which now employs a new 2.2 litre Euro 6 diesel engine.

"This is a significant advance for the range," says Paul Williams, CEO of SsangYong Motor UK. "The power upgrade brings greater refinement, while the cars continue to deliver unrivalled levels of equipment and value, and no other brand offers such a comprehensive warranty for complete peace of mind."

"Sales of these models are already well up compared with last year," adds Mr Williams "which clearly demonstrates that even more people are recognising the amazing value SsangYong offers. With the power upgrade and new automatic gearboxes for 2016, these cars deliver even greater levels of refinement and value."

Diesel power

The newly developed e-XDi220 diesel engine meets the demand for a more powerful performance and lower CO2 emissions at the same time. Maximum power is increased to 178ps and torque to 400Nm - up by 19.4% and 11% respectively over the previous Euro 5 diesel 2.0 litre engine fitted to the Korando. Maximum torque is delivered from a low of 1,400rpm and maintained through a wide range up to 2,800rpm for smooth, progressive driving from the start.

Big strides have also been made with CO2 emissions which have been reduced to 139g/km, down from 147g/km on the previous two-wheel drive, manual transmission Korando, while fuel economy is considerably improved and now up to 53.3mpg (Combined cycle) for the 2-wheel drive manual compared with 47.1mpg on the model it replaces.

Designed by the Italian styling house, Giugiaro, the new 2016 Korando also offers a number of equipment enhancements. Externally, it now sports stylish clear glass direction indicators, a new piano black radiator grille with additional chrome detailing on the ELX, and new-look 16" & 17" alloy wheels, as well as 18" diamond cut alloy wheels on the top of the range model.

There are further improvements inside with an upgraded infotainment system on the EX and ELX models. The EX features a 7" high-resolution touch screen with audio streaming from smart devices and a link to the rear view camera, while the top of the range ELX also benefits from a TomTom navigation system.

All models in the SsangYong range are covered by a best-in-class 5 year limitless mileage warranty. Designed to be totally transparent and give customers complete peace of mind, 'limitless' means just that: not a maximum mileage condition that some brands impose in their small print. All the major mechanical components are covered including wheel bearings, suspension joints and bushes, steering joints, shock absorbers and even the audio system. Wearable components such as clutch discs and brake friction materials which could have their life reduced by poor driving are covered for one year or 12,500 miles, and the battery and paintwork for three years.

Kia announces prices for all-new Sportage

▲ All-new Kia Sportage 1.7 CRDi

KIA today announces pricing and specifications for the fourth-generation of its best-selling model in the UK, the stylish Sportage crossover. There are 18 variants on offer priced from just £17,995 on the road. For the first time GT-Line versions add an even more sporty flourish to the range, while the line-up is headed by the luxurious First Edition model, priced at £31,645. GT-Line models start at £24,350. The new Sportage is on sale from February 5, 2016.

The new Sportage brings major advances in fuel efficiency, comfort, connectivity, convenience and safety.

The acclaimed styling of a model which sells as much on its looks as on its practicality has been subtly modernised and every model benefits from a more premium look and feel to the interior.

There are now four engines and three transmissions with the introduction of a 1.6-litre T-GDi (turbocharged gasoline direct injection) unit and a 7DCT (seven-speed dual-clutch automatic) gearbox, both of which are reserved exclusively for GT-Line. They join extensively re-engineered 1.6-litre GDi petrol and 1.7- and 2.0-litre turbodiesel power units with improved fuel economy and CO2 reductions of up to 29g/km, which means significantly lower company car tax for the Sportage's loyal legions of business drivers.

The six trim lines are badged 1, 2, 3, 4, GT-Line and First Edition. All versions powered by the 1.6-litre GDi and 1.7-litre CRDi engines are front-wheel drive, while those powered by the 1.6-litre T-GDi unit and the two 2.0-litre CRDi diesels have all-wheel drive. Four-wheel-drive versions are distinguished by the 'KX' prefix in the model designation - except for GT-Line and First Edition versions.

Connectivity and advanced driver aids are a pre-requisite in any car these days, and the Sportage will not disappoint on either count. All versions except the entry-level grade have a 7- or 8-inch touch-screen satellite navigation system linked to Kia Connected Services with TomTom®, providing full European mapping and detailed traffic, speed camera, weather and local services information. Further up the range, Speed Limit Information, Lane Keep Assist, High Beam Assist, Autonomous Emergency Braking and Blind Spot Detection with Rear Cross Traffic Alert are available.

Specification highlights

All versions of the all-new Sportage are comprehensively equipped and feature an extensive package of comfort, convenience and safety items which becomes progressively more luxurious with every step up the range.

Even Grade 1/KX-1 comes as standard with 16-inch alloy wheels and all-round disc brakes, a black diamond-mesh grille with chromed surround, front foglights, LED daytime running lamps, cornering lights, chrome-coated belt-line mouldings, smart black cloth upholstery with a grey headlining, electrically adjustable door mirrors, a leather-trimmed steering wheel and gearshifter, all-round electric windows, air conditioning, a DAB radio, Bluetooth with music streaming, USB and AUX ports, 12-volt power outlet in the front and rear, Trailer Stability Assist, Hill-start Assist, Downhill Brake Control and cruise control with speed limiter.

Grade 2/KX-2 expands on this with 17-inch alloys, body-coloured exterior handles with chrome inserts, high-gloss paint on the front grille, 7-inch touch-screen navigation system with integrated reversing camera and connectivity services, roof rails, privacy glass on the rear side windows and tailgate, black premium cloth upholstery and powered lumbar adjustment for the driver's seat, electrically folding and heated door mirrors with LED indicators, reversing sensors, automatic lights and wipers, an auto-dimming rear-view mirror, dual automatic air conditioning with an automatic windscreen de-fog system, a cooled glovebox and the Lane-Keep Assist, automatic high-beam assist and speed limit information functions.

With grade 3/KX-3 come 19-inch alloys, a front wiper de-icer, black leather upholstery, a high-gloss black centre fascia, a rear USB charging point, heated front and rear outer seats, 4.2-inch LCD TFT colour information display, an 8" satellite navigation screen and a JBL® premium sound system with sub-woofer, external amp and front centre speaker.

Above that, grade 4/KX-4 adds bi-xenon adaptive headlights with automatic levelling and washers, front parking sensors, a smart key entry system and engine start/stop button, stainless steel door scuff plates, a panoramic sunroof, LED rear combination lamps, 10-way power adjustable driver and eight-way adjustable front passenger ventilated seats, a heated steering wheel, Autonomous Emergency Braking and Blind Spot Detection with Rear Cross Traffic Alert.

First Edition is distinguished by the Smart Parking Assist system, a smart powered tailgate, a wireless mobile phone charger, metallic paint in either Fusion White or Phantom Black, First Edition decals and stone grey two-tone leather upholstery.

Further standard equipment features for SZ-L include satellite navigation, DAB Radio, cruise control, Sport type steering wheel with silver stitching plus further silver stitching to the seats and gear lever boot. SZ-L is available in seven colours including new Horizon Orange metallic which is available for the first time on Swift; metallic paint is a £430 option.

The Swift SZ-L offers value for money in terms of running costs and purchase price; the 1.2-litre Dual VVT 94PS engine is one of the most powerful in its class, but offers low emissions of just 116g/km CO2 costing £30 in annual VED after the first year and returns a frugal 56.5mpg on the official combined cycle. What Car? magazine recently achieved close to this figure in their 'True MPG' testing at 51.7mpg.

SZ-L is in insurance group 11E, the same low group as the rest of the Swift 1.2-litre range, making it the ideal purchase for younger Swift buyers who want to own a more striking, design led car at an affordable cost.

A range of flexible options from Suzuki Financial Services are on offer with a Nil deposit PCP (Personal Contract Purchase) available followed by 42 monthly payments of £165 for the three door SZ-L and just £10 more per month for the five door model.

Payments can be as low as £99 per month for the three door if a deposit of £2,772 is made. This is also over a 42 month period with a final payment required at the end of the term to keep the car.

CENTRAL FC 5 LYME REGIS RESERVES 2

Division Seven

LYME Regis Reserves lost ground at the top of the Division Seven table after this disappointing defeat at promotion rivals Central FC.

Ultimately the Seasiders were guilty of trying to play too much football through the midfield area when the understandably long grass and sticky surface was crying out for a long ball approach. Their cause wasn't helped by some indifferent defending against youthful opponents who took their chances well.

The hosts took the lead in the seventh minute when left-back Ally Rattenbury got the wrong side of Darren Lampitt and the striker coolly lifted the ball over keeper Chris Higgs from 12 yards out.

Alfie Jaques had a great chance to equalise almost immediately but fired over when well placed.

The lead was doubled in the 13th minute when Nick Horne found space and fired into the corner.

New signing Tyrone Ruth fizzed a low 20-yarder narrowly wide and centre-back Wallace Blackmore headed a corner wide of the post from close in, but these were rare bright moments in poor first half for Lyme.

Central surged 3-0 up ten minutes from the break when Higgs spilled a corner and Horne smashed the loose ball into the back in to the net on the half turn.

Things got worse eight minutes into the second half when Higgs, despite claiming no contact was made, was penalised for a trip by referee Martin Bovey and Horne tucked the resulting penalty away to complete his hat-trick.

At 4-0 there appeared to be no way back for the Seasiders. But they battled away and finally made inroads through the home defence.

Sam Bevis tucked away a one-on-one chance in the 55th minute and Alfie Jaques slotted home to make it 4-2 after brushing off a couple of tackles.

But the steam went out of the fight back, although substitute Fred Thomson looked lively and forced the home gloveman into a smart save at the foot of the post.

And, to compound the visitors' misery, Higgs misused his attempted clearance in the 88th minute and the ball was slotted into the empty net by Horne for his forth of the afternoon.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

ARTHUR GAGE CUP R1

BARRINGTON RES 1 WAYTOWN HOUNDS 4
A TOM PERRY strike was all that Barrington had to show for their efforts as they crashed out of the Arthur Gage Cup.

Waytown took lead in the 10th minute when striker Jon Legg squeezed the ball between the keeper and the near post.

James Loveridge then hammered in a shot from 20 yards that took a slight deflection to put the Hounds 2-0 up. Perry halved the deficit but was then forced off with a pulled hamstring.

Substitute Matt Read, back after a long injury lay-off, made it 3-1 on the hour before Simon Smyth hit a fierce shot which the Barrington keeper got a hand to it but could not prevent it going into the roof of the net.

The result had Waytown manager Mark Higgs purring: "This was a very good team performance but I would pick centre back Tom Rutland as man of the match, with Steve Masters, Loveridge and Ryan Harwood not far behind him."

◆ STILL GOT IT: Matt Read returned from injury with a goal in Waytown's fine 4-1 cup win.

CREWKERNE RANGERS 3 UPLYME 0

CREWKERNE Rangers gained revenge on visitors Uplyme for a hefty 9-1 hammering in the corresponding league fixture at Wadham School back in September.

Josh Lovatt gave the hosts the lead with a 15th minute penalty. Player-manager Scott Isaacs added the crucial second just before half time.

A Steve Bryant free-kick midway through the second-half clinched the win.

Uplyme assistant manager Jon Matthews said: "We were sluggish across the park and really didn't give a good account for ourselves."

"We were hampered by one of our subs not turning up as well as another of our subs not being allowed to play due to unremovable jewellery!"

"The game was very frustrating and although we were on the wrong end of a 3-0 scoreline, we had our chances and should of made more of a game of it."

CHARMOUTH 2 DOWLISH & DONYATT 4
SILVERWARE certainly beckons for Dowlish & Donyatt this season.

The Dodgers progressed in the Bailey Cup after trailing 2-1 at half-time thanks to strikes from George Haywood, Nathan Doey, Jon Bartlett and an OG in a 4-2 victory at Barrs Lane.

Bill Ward and Dan Rendell netted the consolations for the Robins who are now without a win in five matches.

PREMIER

CREWKERNE TOWN 2 COMBE RESERVES 0
"ABSOLUTELY Tiger proud!" was Crewkerne manager Lee Gillman's assessment of his young team's 2-0 victory over Combe Reserves at a sticky Henhayes.

"My young lads battled like hell against a good Combe side - I'm so pleased."

Kieran Adams opened the scoring from the edge of the box on the half-hour. But Combe held the upper hand for large periods and appeared certain to strike back.

But Callum Hooper broke through one-on-one and slotted home the killer second, and the hosts went on to miss a couple of late chances to add to their tally.

FORTON RANGERS 3 W & M CHINNOCK 0
FORTON Rangers bounced back from last week's points deduction in fine style to clamber off the foot of the Premier Division table.

The final scoreline was far from a fair reflection of the game - but Forton took the few chances that came their way while the Chinnocks' were wasteful in front of goal.

Andy Stevenson fired the hosts in front in the 15th minute while the opening quarter was notable for four strong penalty appeals - three for the visitors - which were all waved away.

Breakaway goals from Eddie James and Stevenson clinched the three points for the hosts whose player-manager Alex Thompson said: "It was a great battling performance, our back four were brilliant, but the whole team worked their socks off."

"We were under pressure for most if the second-half but managed to hit them on the counter twice."

The Chinn's keeper-boss Matt Alford, who lost Ollie Hutchings and Mark Cawley to Halstock recently, said: "Although we lost, I was delighted to see our team spirit and we managed to play some decent football on a heavy pitch."

"All credit to Forton; they defended well and took their chances - they did very well to get the game played."

DIVISION THREE

NETHERBURY RESERVES 0 HALSTOCK 3
(Played at East Coker)

GOALS from Johnny Jackson, Mark Whitmarsh and Ben Brister lifted Halstock up to sixth spot in the Division Three table.

With games in-hand, Adge Diment's side a perfectly place to make a push for promotion at the first time of asking following their reformation in the Summer.

◆ BUSY TIME AHEAD:
Trevor Senior

by Stuart Broom

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior was left with more frustration following the postponement of Saturday's rearranged Toolstation Western League Premier Division fixture at Shepton Mallet.

The Bees have only played once since Boxing Day, a 2-0 defeat at leaders Odd Down on January 12th, and although many teams are in a similar situation, it is exasperating Senior that his side do not have the opportunity to make ground on the sides above them.

Handily placed in 10th spot, they have at least two games in-hand on every team bar Gillingham, in some cases up to five. With two victories they could move up to eighth.

With St Mary's having been completely submerged 10 days ago following flooding from heavy rain, Bridport thought they had beaten the weather by switching last Saturday's home fixture to Shepton Mallet.

However, the weather was not to be denied and heavy rain last Thursday and Friday saw the Shepton pitch suffer the same fate and the game was postponed.

Senior said: "It is very frustrating. But it does mean that players like Ryan Dovell (check), Warren Byerley (hamstring) and Darren Watts are able to get more time to improve their fitness."

"However, it will mean a fixture back-log and we will end up playing half a season's games in just three months."

The Bees are due to visit LONGWELL GREEN SPORTS this Saturday.

Bridport Reserves are faring no better, having played just once since Christmas, a 1-1 draw against Sherborne Town. Reserves two weeks ago. Frustratingly they were not allocated a game last Saturday.

Shaun Annetts' side will hope to get back to playing when they entertain HAMWORTHY UTD RES at St Mary's (ko 3pm).

Rugby round-up

Woodwork fails to deny Blues victory

Bridport 36 Ellingham 7
Ringwood 18

Dorset & Wilts Division Two (South)
THIS ended up being an excellent Bridport victory against a very determined side who had travelled down to avenge a one point defeat inflicted by the Blues back in October.

Bridport started brightly, and a smart interception from Mike Pibworth set up a ruck from which Tim Edwards burst to score between the posts. Ricky Stubbs added the conversion.

Good running down the left wing then led to a scrum in an attacking position for the hosts, the forwards obliged with a solid platform and Stubbs showed excellent footwork to score the second try, which he converted and it was 14-0.

Strung into action, the visitors piled on the pressure and Bridport were guilty of conceding two kickable penalties to let E & R back into the game at 14-6.

Dave Cutting, playing at inside centre,

Fordingbridge II	15	-492	-4

caught the opposition napping with a quickly taken penalty and forced his way over for Bridport's third try. The conversion hit the outside of the post.

When Nathan Herbert added a fourth try after some smart handling from Lance Samways, Bridport seemed in a comfortable position, and although the conversion again hit the post, led 24-6

In the second half, with the wind behind them and the slight slope in the visitors favour, Bridport found themselves on the back foot.

The E & R fly-half kicked cleverly to pin the Blues back in their own half, where too often they earned the Ref's displeasure.

A penalty kick for the corner followed by a driving maul gave the visitors their first try, which was well converted, and when they followed with another, albeit unconverted, and the score was suddenly 24-18 and the game wide open.

However, unlike December's Dorchester disaster, the home side responded in the most positive fashion, winning a scrum against the head and setting wing Daragh McLoughlin off on a storming run to the line. The kick went wide, but Stubbs added a converted try and finish off the scoring.

Next week Bridport travel to bottom of the table FORDINGBRIDGE 2nds.

Bridport U12s

THERE was a triangular mini-tournament at Dorchester at the weekend played in drizzle on muddy pitch.

Dorchester selected from a squad of 40, Weymouth 30, against 16 from Bridport, to play three games of 15 minutes duration.

In the first game against DORCHESTER both sides traded tries, Dorchester pipping it two tries to the one powered over by Henry Mason.

The second game against WEYMOUTH was in the same vein as the first, end to end through the heavy mud, but the tries by George Found and Oliver Hansford-Harvey levelled the score at 2-2.

By now the mud and effort was tiring the Bridport few, and the third game against a fresh DORCHESTER proved to be one too many. Tackles were missed, and the Blues went down 5-0.

Dorchester U14s through to County Cup final

Dorchester U14s 55
Oakmeadians 0

by Iain Adshead

Dorchester began the recent County Cup semi-final positively with Zack Southall scoring the first try after only a few minutes and Samson Marshall taking the second fairly soon afterwards.

Far from taking the wind from Oakmeadians' sails, it seemed to galvanize them and their defense remained resolute.

Their strong scrum gave them some respite for some time, but Dorchester seemed determined to not be dominated and as a consequence they ran in five more tries, courtesy of two each from John Stewart and Frankie Read, and another from Zack Southall to lead 43-0 at the interval.

The start of the second half saw personnel changes for both sides, with the remainder of the Dorchester bench being used; one of these replacements, Taylor Moore scoring a good try in the corner. Oakmeadians heads didn't drop and they kept fighting to the end, despite continuous pressure from a well-drilled Dorchester side.

The last score went to Jago Oak-Rhind, after a storming run from the halfway line.

Dorchester Squad: Joel Clarke, Patrick Taylor, Matthew Adshead, Will Adler, Ed Martin, Ethan Staddon, Stefan Perry, John Stewart, Sam Downey, Orlando Bailey, Zack Southall, Frankie Read, Freddie Marsden, Nathan McNab. Subs all used: Jack Hayward, Jago Oak-Rhind, Joe Message, Yihan Kershaw, Taylor Moore, Will Simpson, Tom Heinrich.

Dorchester U14s now face Wimborne U14s in the Dorset County Cup Final on February 14th at North Dorset RFC (11am ko).

DORCHESTER 3RD XV 7

SWANAGE & WAREHAM 3RD XV 19
DESPITE a couple of no-shows, two new recruits to the club meant the Gladiators at least started with 15, against a rather larger visiting squad.

The visitors enjoyed the majority of early possession which they soon converted into points.

A short while later, with Dorchester still not having actually got their hands on the ball, a tap penalty under their posts saw a converted try put the visitors 12-0 up, with no sign that this was to be anything other than a very long afternoon for the hosts.

This proved to be a turning point, however, with the match becoming much more even.

Swans were still playing better overall, with several chances from kicks ahead, but the Gladiators' back three snuffed out each opportunity.

Although the home defence still creaked in places, with Swans able to make good ground when attacking in the loose, the scramble defence was effective.

Furthermore, Swans' maul was neutralised as Dorchester became more organised, driving several back to win the scrum.

Just before half time a visit to the sin-bin by Mark Newman for a late tackle could have dashed the home spirits, but instead they launched attack after attack, and were unlucky not quite to get over the Swans' line.

With numbers restored after the break, Dorchester continued to hold the ascendancy, and eventually Chris Backhouse touched the ball briefly on the line.

The visitors hadn't seen it and complained, but the referee had, and by now was fed up with being constantly advised, so awarded a penalty try, which was duly converted.

Dorchester's tails were up but they couldn't quite get to the line again, Swans' bench shoring up tiring legs despite them losing a man to the bin for a perceived tip tackle.

With just a few minutes to go Swans were finally able to force their way over the home line, converting for a 19-7 lead which they kept to the final whistle.

The Gladiators' next game is on Saturday away at Bournemouth IV.

Bridport target promotion

Bridport 1st 17 JP Blandford 2nd 5

BRIDPORT'S victory over League Division 2 leaders Blandford sees them in with a chance of promotion to the top league in Dorset Squash writes Roger Lewis.

Jason Martin at one for Bridport was up against a hard-hitting opponent in Mike James. At the start it was nip and tuck with both players trying to gain the upper hand. Once they settled down it was Martin who continually had James on the back foot as he went through to record a 9-3, 9-5, 9-4 victory.

Ollie Duquemin was his usual reliable self against Blandford's Steve Quick at two.

Duquemin, who has the ability to cover the court at tremendous speed, consequently managed to retrieve his opponent's shots and was able to dispatch his returns to parts of the court which was the deciding factor as Duquemin turned in a creditable 9-3, 9-6, 9-3 victory.

Bridport's Dan Wentzel and Blandford's Tim Wetherall had many a long rally in a 60-minute battle.

As both players tried to maintain the T position.

At times the squash was top class played between two very fit opponents but in the end Wentzel won through 4-9, 9-3, 9-7, 7-9, 9-2.

Nick Neale at four for Bridport had a difficult encounter against Nick Rogers who had him going all ways with a range of pressure shots to all corners of the court.

The Blandford player was in control most of the time only allowing Neale to play the odd counter attack shot and took the match 9-6, 9-3, 9-3.

Newcomer to first team squash Nathan Neale at five and was up against a very experienced opponent in Blandford's Adam Guppy. However, Neale's supreme fitness and his reading of his opponents play gained him some valuable points.

A player with a tremendous temperament and loads of patience will make him a very accomplished player, as was shown in his performance against the experienced Guppy. Neale was everywhere dispatching shots to all corners and eventually recorded a very good 9-1, 9-1, 9-6 victory.

Mixed Handicap semi's line-up

ALL three divisions will be represented in the semi finals of this season's Weymouth & District Table Tennis League's Handicap Cup after last week's quarter-finals.

Colliton X were the first side to secure their place in the last four with a 6-3 win over fellow Division One side Wyke A.

Sai Maganti gave Wyke a great start with a straight sets win over in form Andy Crouch having had to overcome a 9-0 handicap in the first to 21 best of three set match.

Steve White needed to beat Crouch to keep Wyke's hopes alive but the eight-point start he had to give Crouch was too much and he went down 21-15 in the third which gave Colliton an unassailable 5-2 lead.

All Saints are the Division Two representatives after beating their Division Three opponents Colliton C 6-3.

The youngsters won this match by winning the first five legs despite having to overcome small handicaps in all but one of them.

Luke Dadds got them off to a good start in overturning a five-point handicap to beat Peter Loakes in three sets.

The decisive leg was also the closest though with Ben Hannigan giving Katherine Bundy an eight-point start. When Bundy levelled the leg by taking the second set, Colliton saw a glimmer of hope but Hannigan sneaked the deciding 21-19 to give All Saints a 5-0 winning lead.

The second Division One side through the last four is Budmouth B after they won 5-4 against their Division Two opponents Preston A.

Moses Lewis started 0-12 down against Stan Smith in the opening leg of the match but won a tough three setter to give Budmouth an early lead.

Brad Burroughs had to give away seven points to Derrick Shilliday in the ninth and deciding leg but made this up easily in the first set taking it 21-9.

The second was a much closer affair, but Burroughs avoided a final set decider by securing it 21-18 to send Budmouth through.

The last quarter final saw STEPS J of Division Three overcome Budmouth C 5-4 in a match Budmouth started 3-0 down due to last minute illness to Jamie Blair.

STEPS held their nerve despite a spirited fight back from Will Jolliffe and Ethan Gear to ensure their progression.

The league's tournament takes place this Saturday afternoon (February 6th).

All league fixtures, results, tables and averages can be found at www.ttleague.co.uk.

West Dorset Hawks Hockey

Hawks win as Cornishmen delayed en route

West Dorset Hawks 5 Camborne School of Mines 1

WEST Dorset Hawks' task was made much easier by the late arrival of three of Camborne's players who had been delayed en route by an accident.

Not only did they start short of players, they had to play in the clothes they arrived in as the delayed players were carrying the kit! Nevertheless the traditional Cornish spirit showed through as the eight thwarted the Hawks early on.

But eventually West Dorset's numerical advantage helped build up a 4-1 lead by the interval before the arrival of the missing players.

Hawks welcomed back Steve Mearning up front, and with captain Robin Goodfellow on holiday, Gavin Brookling took over the sweeper role.

Many of teams in this league are university sides, they are young, fit and skilful and employ tactics of packing the centre of the pitch making them difficult to break down.

Eventually Mearning's speed and close control opened then up on 15 minutes and his pass from the top of the D found Rick Dormer who scored a poacher's goal, sneaking in at the last post.

This settled Hawks nerves, although Camborne defended doggedly and broke swiftly at times giving the home defence some headaches.

West Dorset however added a second from a short corner high Bob Dormer stroked into the bottom corner.

Five minutes later Rick Steele beat his man before presenting Dormer the opportunity to score his second.

Three to the good, Hawks became complacent and were caught too high, and although Tom Lowe made a great save from the initial shot he couldn't prevent the Cornish striker from tucking home the rebound.

This gave the visitors impetus and they pushed for a second. But they too were caught on the counter just before the break when Rick Dormer's pace saw him beat two players before thumping a shot into the top corner.

Restored to numerical parity, Camborne went all out to get back in the game and dominated the first 25 minutes of the second half and Lowe was forced into several good saves.

Hawks relieved the pressure with a superb one-touch counter attack between Julian May, Steele and Simon Wakely which saw the latter lash a first time shot into the corner.

Spokesman May said: "They were a very good side, even with eight players a real credit to their club, but we played really well which allowed us to build up a 4-1 half-time lead."

Broadchurch Triathlon details confirmed

THE inaugural West Bay (Broadchurch) triathlon will take place in June on the site of the Broadchurch cliffs, with both a TRY a tri and Olympic distance triathlon available.

Martin lifted by Winch win

BRIDPORT Chess Club's annual championship gave rise to some remarkable games last week, with all matches in the third round of the Under 150 section ending in decisive results.

The notable upset of the round was provided by club treasurer David Martin who shocked veteran Colin Winch in a game marked by a somewhat reckless king-side attack.

Winch missed several chances to refute Martin's ploys but when he succumbed to the tempting offer of a dubious queen sacrifice, his opponent enjoyed the luxury of a stylish win.

Club chairman Malcolm Steevens now heads the field after a convincing victory over the dangerous Jeremy Brodie, who seemed a little out of form.

Steevens wasted no time in seizing an advanced outpost for one of his knights, from where it was able to radiate formidable power across Brodie's defences, eventually causing them to crumble.

Meanwhile, relative newcomer Geoff Barker pitted his wits as white against the vastly more experienced Paul Brackner. Barker held his own for an admirable 48 moves but finally found himself snared in a beautiful mating net of Brackner's design.

PUZZLE: In our diagram below, with white to play, black faces checkmate in three moves. Can you spot the forcing sequence? The solution will be in our next column.

Yes, no, sorry! run-outs misery for Martinstown

Weymouth u16 134-3 beat Martinstown by 45 runs

A SOLID performance from Weymouth with both bat and ball put them 3-1 up in their mini league against Martinstown.

Batting first Dom Webb (30 no) and Joe James (25 no) kept the scoreboard ticking over at a good rate against a Martinstown attack that gave very little away.

Martinstown's efforts in the field were rewarded with the run outs of Tom Chedzoy (16) and Dylan Ellis (19) as they fought back. Nathan McNab (3-0-17-1) trapped Sam Bowler lbw for 13 but a well judged cameo innings from Ben Alford (8 no) saw Weymouth close on 134-3.

Martinstown fought hard against a fired up Weymouth attack but, despite 27no from Sean Williams, they never got up with the run rate.

McNab (18) battled away but, with Alford having J.Vane (10) well caught by Chedzoy, the writing was on the wall and Martinstown fell 45 runs short.

Puddletown u12 130-4 beat Weymouth 40-5 by 90 runs

A MAGNIFICENT 61 not out from Fergus Dipple formed the back bone of an excellent batting display from Puddletown as a young and inexperienced Weymouth side were well beaten.

In reply Weymouth never got going as the Puddletown attack - led by Dipple (3-2-3-1) - gave nothing away.

Weymouth fought hard and did at least deny Puddletown the bonus of dismissing all the batsman.

Martinstown u12 84 a/o beat Puddletown 64 a/o by 20 runs

ELECTING to bat Martinstown had two players run out in the opening over as Puddletown once again produced as excellent display in the field.

Seb Galego (24) and David Officer (33) staged a recovery and pushed the run rate up, however the run out habit struck again and it looked like Martinstown were going to lose there unbeaten record as they were dismissed for 84 in 6.1 overs.

Puddletown began slowly but

J.Steven (11) and W.Trevis (4) set a good foundation.

The run out bug struck again accounting for both Trevis and Dipple (0) as the game swung back in Martinstown's favour.

Offer struck dismissing Steven, Damien Lewis then had Harvey (8) caught and it was left to Galego to take the final wicket clean bowling Sam Hargreaves for 11 as Martinstown pulled off an exciting victory in the 9th over.

Reserves' promotion hopes take a hit

JUST three of the region's teams managed to get a game in on Saturday and all three ended up tasting defeat.

Lyme Reserves included keeper Chris Higgs in their squad for the trip to Exeter where Central FC lay in wait.

The experienced first team stopper was returning from a one-game suspension but had a tricky afternoon in the long grass at the KGV, and conceded five times as the Seaside were beaten 5-2 by their Devon & Exeter League Division Seven promotion rivals.

Lack-luster Lyme trailed 4-0 early in the second half and, although goals from Sam Bevis and Alfie Jaques gave them hope, the hosts eased home 5-2.

Next up for Gerard Hitchcock's team, still lying second in the table, is Saturday's visit by ninth-placed Cheriton Fitzpaine Reserves (3pm ko).

UPLYME's hopes of lifting the Arthur Gage Cup fell at the first hurdle when they went down 3-0 at Crewkerne Rangers.

The Swallows are in cup action again on Saturday when they welcome Division Three title favourites Dowlish & Donyatt with a Daisy Hutchings quarter-final at Beaminster Reserves at stake.

Meanwhile, goals from Bill Ward and Dan Rendell couldn't save CHARMOUTH from a Bill Bailey Cup 4-2 defeat on their own Barrs Lane turf by Dowlish & Donyatt.

The Robins turn their attention back to the quest from promotion from the Perry Street League Division Three when they welcome lowly Farway Utd Reserves on Saturday (2.30pm).

Lyme Regis, still fifth in the table, will hope to return to D & E Division Two action on Saturday with a first ever visit to Longmeade to face ninth-placed Hemyock.

Lyme Bantams are set to welcome Combe Reserves providing the Woodroffe School pitch recovers in time (2.30ko).

Uplyme Reserves have no fixture despite the growing list of backlogged games. The PSDL tally is now 121; which already far exceeds last season's 96.

Over in the D&E League just 85 of a scheduled 269 matches have been played since December 12th.

◆ GOAL...NO! Lyme Regis Reserves' centre-back Wallace Blackmore (centre, yellow shirt) seems certain to score against Central FC on Saturday. But the ball went narrowly wide and Lyme went on to lose 5-2.
